Lateness Helpful Reminder

Late students will not be allowed into Section classes
without a written excuse.

If you are late in the morning
collect a note from the 'vie scolaire' and go to your Anglophone class.

Plagiarism

“According to the Merriam-Webster Online Dictionary, to ‘plagiarize’ means

- to steal and pass off (the ideas or words of another) as one's own
- to use (another's production) without crediting the source
- to commit literary theft
- to present as new and original an idea or product derived from an existing source.

Homework assignments

- Make sure you note down and keep track of your homework assignments!
- You will have to sign a homework contract

University Guidance

Structured advice will be provided after Christmas. In the meantime continue to use UNIFROG for your own research. (Contact Mr Miller if you need a code.)

Library

- Please bring back your books that you checked out for summer and put them in the clear boxes in the classroom (labeled LIBRARY BOOK RETURN)
- Remember visit the website:
 - <https://csianglosecond.libib.com>
- You will have a chance to visit the library next week with your classes.

Covid conditions

Due to the ongoing presence of the virus, the Covid sanitary conditions which were applied last year will continue this year until further notice.

- Students and teachers will wear masks, gel their hands and respect social distancing.
- The use of IT equipment will be monitored and carefully disinfected after use
- Teachers will set class and homework on the google classroom. A link to it will be provided on pronote.
- Talk you to your teachers or other members of the Anglophone staff if you have problems or feel overwhelmed.

build yourself up with positive words.

don't tear yourself down with negative ones.

If you need help or advice:

- The Teaching Team
- Rob Miller - Head of Section
- Anglophone Staff (please avoid going to the office)
